

Nimra Zahid

International Relations researcher & educator

Northampton, UK | Updated 2026-09-24 | Author-review draft

Education

MA International Relations

University of Northampton

September 2023 - November 2024

Merit. Awarded 27 November 2024. Dissertation: Deconstructing the Role of Afghanistan in Regional Security Complex Theory.

MPhil International Relations

National Defence University, Islamabad

Spring 2016 - Fall 2017

CGPA 3.53 / 4.00. Conferred December 2018. Research on Russia-Afghanistan relations and regional stability. Formal thesis title awaiting confirmation.

BS International Relations

Lahore College for Women University

2011 - 2015

CGPA 3.24 / 4.00. Four-year degree; conferred May 2016.

Research

Deconstructing the Role of Afghanistan in Regional Security Complex Theory

University of Northampton

2024

I examine Afghanistan as a driver of regional security dynamics, rather than a buffer between neighbouring security complexes.

Russia-Afghanistan relations and regional stability

National Defence University, Islamabad

2018

I explore Russia-Afghanistan relations and their implications for regional stability, establishing the foundation for my continuing regional security research.

Conference presentations

Istanbul International Social Science Conference

Istanbul, Turkey

June 2020

Paper on the Global War on Terror and the roles of Afghanistan and Turkey in regional security. Exact paper title to be confirmed.

Teaching experience

Geography & History Teacher · Form Tutor

Specialist SEMH school, Northamptonshire

February 2025 - present

KS3-4 Geography and History in specialist social, emotional and mental health provision. Adapting teaching and resources to individual learning needs.

Geography & Science Teacher

Abbeyfield School, Northampton · via Teaching Personnel

February 2024 - February 2025

Secondary Geography and Science teaching in England.

Visiting Faculty · International Relations

University of Gujrat, Mandi Bahauddin campus

September 2019 - March 2022

Taught six undergraduate modules, including Foreign Policy Analysis and Research Methodology. Served as Student Affairs Sub-in-Charge and led the Blood Donation Society.

Secondary Teacher · Humanities & Social Studies

Beaconhouse School System, Pakistan

September 2015 - March 2023

Humanities and Social Studies teaching. This role overlapped with visiting university teaching.

Leadership & service

Student Affairs Sub-in-Charge

University of Gujrat, Mandi Bahauddin campus

During 2019-2022 appointment

Student affairs responsibilities and leadership of the Blood Donation Society.

Training

Protecting Human Research Participants

National Institutes of Health

Research ethics training.

Skills & languages

Research & teaching

Regional Security Complex Theory; SPSS; curriculum and resource design; inclusive teaching.

Languages

English · Urdu · Punjabi

Degree verification available on request.