

Nimra Zahid

International Relations researcher & educator

Northampton, UK · nimrazahidranjha@gmail.com · LinkedIn

EDUCATION

September 2023 –
November 2024

MA International Relations

University of Northampton

Merit. Awarded 27 November 2024. Dissertation: Deconstructing the Role of Afghanistan in Regional Security Complex Theory. 180 credits at Level 7, including a 60-credit Research Methods and Dissertation module.

Spring 2016 – Fall 2017

MPhil International Relations

National Defence University, Islamabad

CGPA 3.53 / 4.00. Conferred December 2018. Thesis on Russia–Afghanistan relations and their implications for regional stability (grade A, 86%). Coursework in advanced research methodology, international political economy and the foreign policies of great powers.

2011 – 2015

BS International Relations

Lahore College for Women University

CGPA 3.24 / 4.00. Four-year degree including research methodology, academic writing, conflict and conflict resolution, and international law; conferred May 2016.

RESEARCH

2024

Deconstructing the Role of Afghanistan in Regional Security Complex Theory

University of Northampton

I examine Afghanistan as a driver of regional security dynamics, rather than a buffer between neighbouring security complexes.

2018

Russia–Afghanistan relations and regional stability

National Defence University, Islamabad

I explore Russia–Afghanistan relations and their implications for regional stability, establishing the foundation for my continuing regional security research.

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

June 2020

Istanbul International Social Science Conference

Istanbul Sabahattin Zaim University, Istanbul, Turkey

Paper on the Global War on Terror and the roles of Afghanistan and Turkey in regional security.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

February 2025 – present

Geography & History Teacher · Form Tutor

Specialist SEMH school, Northamptonshire

KS3–4 Geography and History in specialist social, emotional and mental health provision, adapting teaching and resources to individual learning needs. As form tutor, I provide daily pastoral support, work with the SENCO on adapted provision, liaise with parents and carers, and keep pupil progress records up to date.

February 2024 –
February 2025

Geography & Science Teacher

Abbeyfield School, Northampton · via Teaching Personnel

Planned and taught secondary Geography and Science lessons, tracked pupil progress and kept assessment records.

September 2019 – March
2022

Visiting Faculty · International Relations

University of Gujrat, Mandi Bahauddin campus

Taught six undergraduate modules, including International Relations, Foreign Policy Analysis and Research Methodology. Served as Student Affairs Sub-in-Charge and led the Blood Donation Society.

September 2015 – March
2023

Secondary Teacher · Humanities & Social Studies

Beaconhouse School System, Mandi Bahauddin, Pakistan

Humanities and Social Studies teaching at secondary level, held alongside my visiting faculty role at the University of Gujrat from 2019.

LEADERSHIP & SERVICE

2019 – 2022

Student Affairs Sub-in-Charge

University of Gujrat, Mandi Bahauddin campus

Coordinated student welfare, departmental liaison and student-facing policy; led the Blood Donation Society, recruiting volunteers and organising events with the wider university community.

TRAINING

Protecting Human Research Participants

US National Institutes of Health \(NIH\), Office of Extramural Research

Research ethics training.

SKILLS & LANGUAGES

Research & teaching

Regional Security Complex Theory; academic writing; research-methods teaching; SPSS; curriculum and resource design; Microsoft Office, Teams and Zoom.

Languages

English · Urdu · Punjabi

Degree verification available on request.